SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

October Term, 1945.

No. 75

CHAMPLIN REFINING COMPANY, Appellant,

vs.

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AND INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

Appeal from the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Oklahoma.

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE.

Comes now the Appellant, Champlin Refining Company, and respectfully moves the Court that this cause be continued for oral argument until it may be heard by the full membership of the Court; and in support of said motion, states:

That said case is of serious consequence to appellant and in the event it be determined by an equal division of the Court, the finality of such result would be doubtful.

Wherefore, Appellant prays that said cause be continued for oral argument until the case may be heard by the full membership of the Court.

CHAMPLIN REFINING COMPANY,
Appellant,
HARRY O. GLASSER,
DAN MOODY,
Counsel.
